KWC AMERICA ANNOUNCES WINNER OF KWC EVE DRAWING Maria Stapperfenne, CKD, CBD of Tewksbury Kitchens & Baths Wins Innovative Kitchen Faucet

WHITEHOUSE STATION, N.J. (March 2008) – KWC AMERICA is pleased to announce the winner of its KWC EVE faucet giveaway - Maria Stapperfenne of New Jersey. The “Turn Me On” promotion was introduced at the Kitchen and Bath Industry Show 2007 offering designers, architects and K/BIS attendees a chance to win the high style kitchen faucet with LUMINAQUA® advanced light technology. The winner was recently selected by a random drawing.

“The KWC AMERICA booth is always on my ‘must-see’ list when I attend the Kitchen & Bath Industry Show,” says Maria Stapperfenne, CKD, CBD. “I was stunned when KWC AMERICA called to let me know I was chosen as the winner from all of the entrants.”

The KWC EVE faucet combines beauty, light and function. The softly flowing stream of water is illuminated with an LED light band providing a brilliant addition to any kitchen. Widely recognized for its innovative technology and design, the KWC EVE was recently awarded the International Design Award, Red Dot, and the 2006 Hospitality Design Product of the Year.

Stapperfenne runs Tewksbury Kitchens & Baths, the kitchen and bath division of Houston Lumber & Supply, in Whitehouse Station, N.J. She frequently specifies KWC and Hansa products and is ecstatic to now have the product in her own home. Stapperfenne is currently in the process of renovating her kitchen, which will soon feature a KWC EVE faucet to accompany the KWC sink she already owns.
